GUIDE TO MAINTAIN YOUR DRIVING ATTENDANCE CARD

You will have to pay in advance for your chosen driving lesson

It must be your responsibility to maintain your logbook hours and appointment card safely

Maintaining the logbook hours is also essential to follow up with the total number of driving hours you needed to learn to drive safely

For any inconvenience or disagreement, you need to address your driving instructor immediately

Follow the instructions given in your appointment card properly to avoid any log book hours-related issue

It is important to remember that if the appointment card gets lost. Or else, it will be considered that your driving hours are fully dismissed especially if the instructor fails to recall your driving hours
